Eclectic Wood Design

A customised door design enveloped in straight lines and earthy tones are part of the eclectic mood given to the interiors of Barceló Ourense Hotel. Fire and acoustic doors ensure comfort and enhance the contemporary ambience.

Industrial Chic

Wall panels and performance doors with a concrete look bring a bold and modern character to the atmosphere of this emblematic project, Caju Le Petit Hotel, marked by urban minimalism and the presence of centuries-old architectural elements.

Figurative Touch

Bespoke design elements that project a historical heritage. Headboards, panels and fire and acoustic doors, embody the medieval theme with tones and graphics that blend harmoniously with the modern interior architecture of this Accor Group hotel.

Metallic Palette

The doors and frames with aged copper effect and matt finish create the perfect connection with the organic and natural thematic interiors. Lagos Avenida Hotel stands out for its intimate and cosy atmosphere.

Geometric Shapes

Design details embody the theme for this project which conveys the essence of traditional architecture. Elegant, the door participates in a setting filled with elements that complement and bring to life the Pur Oporto of ActaHotels.

Refined High Gloss

A sophisticated finish that enhances the look of brushed copper with the addition of high gloss lacquer. Intense, it flows on a voyage of unique visual notes marked by tones and designs that participate in the "butterfly effect" theme, desired for the Bessa Hotel Baixa.

Timeless Tones

Door and frame in wood veneer with a sawn effect and autumnal tones. Involved in a sensory experience that evokes the theme of The Lodge Wine & Business Hotel - the Wine - emphasises the fusion between sophisticated design and the authenticity of tradition.
